

The Cultural Association of Anogia honored Mr. Miltiades Karatzis

The Cultural Association of Anogia honored the businessman Mr. Miltiades Karatzis for his work and contribution to Crete and particularly to Anogia, in the context of a charity event dedicated to institutions that support society and people in need. Mr. Miltiades Karatzis received an honorary plaque, a Cretan knife with a couplet (mantinada) in honor of him and a black scarf. In addition, he received the award of the honorary membership in the Cultural Association of Anogia.

The Anogians, through this event, wanted to show their deep appreciation to the entrepreneur, who through his companies over the years has been offering work to people, but also to show their general recognition to his deed in Crete. Loudovikos ton Anogion, the priest papa-Andreas and Babis Skoulas are some of Anogians who spoke for Mr. Miltiades Karatzis from their heart, using warm words that showed their admiration and the fact that they consider him as the benefactor of Crete. Through their words they expressed and represented the feelings of all Anogians for Mr. Miltiades Karatzis, who appreciate and recognise his love for the island and its people.
